PSE: Joint Use

Qualifying schools/school districts have formal Joint Use Agreements for recreational, garden, and cooking facilities with surrounding communities, parks, community centers, and/or other resources.

This material was produced by the California Department of Public Health's Nutrition Education and Obesity Prevention Branch with funding from USDA SNAP-Ed, known in California as CalFresh. These institutions are equal opportunity providers and employers. CalFresh provides assistance to low-income households and can help buy nutritious food for better health. ASSESSMENT INSTRUMENTS	Joint Use Agreement Checklist (ChangeLab Solutions, 2009) This checklist is designed to identify issues for the parties to consider when developing a JUA to share existing facilities. Not all of the issues presented will be applicable in all situations, and there may be issues unique to communities that are not included in this assessment. http://changelabsolutions.org/publications/checklist-developing-joint-use-agreement-jua
GENERAL RESOURCES	General Joint Use Information This website shows how joint use is a way to increase opportunities for children and adults to be more physically active. It refers to two or more entities — usually a school and a city or private organization — sharing indoor and outdoor spaces like gymnasiums, athletic fields and playgrounds. The concept is simple: share resources to keep costs down and communities healthy. http://www.jointuse.org/ Joint Use and Liability - (ChangeLab Solutions) To assist school and government attorneys in assessing liability risks, NPLAN commissioned a 50-state survey of the laws governing liability for after-hours recreational use of school facilities. http://changelabsolutions.org/publications/liability-schools-50-states Joint Use Best Practices – (Central California Regional Obesity Prevention Program) A success story on San Joaquin joint use of school grounds published by The California Endowment. http://www.ccropp.org/uploads/TCE_SuccessStories_JointUse_SJV.pdf Joint Use and State Law - (ChangeLab Solutions) This is a Fifty-State Scan of Laws Addressing Community Use of Schools is a state-by-state overview of statutes about whether school property can be used by the community for recreation. http://changelabsolutions.org/publications/state-rules-JUAs Joint Use School Partnerships in California – (Center for Cities and Schools and Public Health Law & Policy) A research report that establishes an empirical understanding of the full range of joint use and how specific strategies fit into a larger picture of more efficiently and appropriately utilizing public school spaces for educational and community purposes. http://media.cefpj.org/CCS_Partnerships.pdf
